

ScienceUs

FROM CITIZEN SCIENCE TO DECISION-MAKING FOR CLIMATE CHANGE ADAPTATION

12 March – USquare, Brussels

Draft Program

Morning introduction

08:30 AM	Registration and Coffee
09:30 AM	Welcome words
09:40 AM	Introducing the ScienceUs Project and Consortium
09:50 AM	What is Citizen Science (app session)

From funders to decision- makers ; How to better translate and value Citizen Science contributions to inclusive decision- making processes

PRESENTATIONS AND INTERACTIVE PANEL.

10:00 AM	Citizen Science in action – Meet the 5 ScienceUs projects
10:15 AM	Questions & Answers
10:30 AM	Uncovering the past and future roadmap of Citizen Science, from funding bodies' perspective <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Long-term vision on Citizens' Science, and existing funding opportunities – Georgios Papanagnou – DG Research & Innovation – European Commission• Funding Co-creation and next Citizen Science dynamics in Brussels – Xavier Hulhoven – Innoviris
11:00 AM	Coffee break
11:30 AM	Translating Citizen Science results and data into inclusive policymaking , from a national and local policy-makers' perspective.
12:15 PM	Interactive Panel: "From funders to decision makers; How to better translate and value Citizen Science contributions to inclusive decision-making processes" .
01:00 PM	Walking lunch

Inspiration and networking session with Brussels initiatives

02:00 PM	Inspire – Meet the 5 ScienceUs projects
02:15 PM	Questions & Answers
02:30 PM	Get Inspired – Discover 5 inspiring past and present projects based in Brussels implementing Citizen Science within local, regional or national policy- making processes.
03:00 PM	Network – World Café featuring Citizen Science initiatives with concrete feedback and practices sharing on Citizen Science methodologies, upscaling and impact on policies.
05:00 PM	Drink

Funded by the European Union

UNIVERSITÉ
LIBRE
DE BRUXELLES ULB VUB VRIJE
UNIVERSITEIT
BRUSSEL

OPENLAB.BRUSSELS